

Brad and Martin are double winners at Red Bull Pro Nationals

It was another superb weekends racing by the entire team at PAR Honda at the 6th round of the Red Bull Pro Nationals at Pontrilas in Hereford.

Brad Anderson and Martin Barr won both races in their respective classes, which leaves both riders as championship leaders in MX1 and MX2 with three rounds still remaining.

In the Open two stroke races Scott Elderfield finished runner up after taking victory in the final race on the Saturday. On Sunday he switched machines to the 250F and put in a strong performance to finish 3rd overall.

Over in Slovenia Luke Hawkins European MX2 Championship campaign was still in full flow but the young Bath based rider had a tough weekend but still put in a solid performance for 11th overall which leaves him in 6th position in the championship table.
