

Martin Barr is a man on a mission as he takes Red Bull round 3 at Canada Heights

The young Irishman Martin Barr once again showed excellent form this past weekend at round 3 of the Red Bull Pro National. Martin swept to two convincing wins in the MX2 class and now leads the championship by 6 points from his closest rival.

“Today went really well. It started with first place in qualifying, followed by two race wins so I couldn’t ask for much more. Coming into the weekend I was two points behind Banks Browne and now lead with a 6 point advantage. I wanted to come and get the red plate which I did so I’m happy. The PAR Honda is performing really well and hopefully I can keep the momentum going for the rest of the season. I’ve got a bit of a break now from championship events so it’s a good time to plan for the rest of the year.”

Brad Anderson – Red Bull Pro National – 3rd overall MX1

“I was hoping for a good day today, in the first race I started ok in around 6th and started to catch Sword, LaMay and Dougan, me and Crockard collided and I went down, it was too late to catch up with the others. I had a better start in race two and chased LaMay hard and eventually finished 2nd. I felt I could have pushed a bit more but the conditions today were awkward, hard underneath and loose on top so I really didn’t want to risk anything. I have a 22 point lead in the championship now so I’m happy with that.”

Scott Elderfield – Red Bull Pro National – 1st overall 2 Stroke open

A fine display of 2 stroke racing ensured Scott Elderfield a fine overall win in the Fuchs Silkolene Open championship at Canada Heights on the Saturday. Scott swept to wins in the first two races only to be passed on the line (literally) by Gordon Crockard in race three which put paid to a well deserved maximum.
